

Shipping Policy

- 1. The seller makes every effort to ship watches that are keeping time and running in accordance with generally acceptable standards.
- 2. To do this requires a two day (minimum) testing period after purchase. The seller will contact the buyer by email if the testing period needs to be extended and the buyer will have the option to cancel the purchase for a full refund (including shipping changes) at this point of the transaction.
- 3. The seller generally ships USPS priority mail fully insured for any item over $50.00. International methods may vary.
